

Start-Up Funding for Charities and Social Enterprises

Course Summary

If you're in the early stages of starting up your organisation and are looking for funds to help you grow, develop or even get off the ground, this course will help point you in the right direction.

With tons of information about the different types of income available, you will learn which would be most appropriate for your charity or social enterprise – and how to identify opportunities that help you deliver your social purpose. The course comes with a comprehensive handbook with an extensive list of places to identify funds to help you at the start of your journey.

This short session is aimed at leaders and founders of charities and social enterprises at the early stages of their development.

It can be delivered as a short workshop face to face, or as a webinar.

Learning Objectives

The course will support participants to;

- Understand the different income streams available their start up organisation
- Know where and how to identify potential funding opportunities
- Be confident in knowing when (and when not) to apply for funds.
